

Assignment Instructions:

Read the information from this link:

http://apps.nasponline.org/resources-and-publications/books-and-products/products/books/docs/bp6/book_1_w/30_B1chapter30_WM.pdf

And read the information from this link :

http://apps.nasponline.org/resources-and-publications/books-and-products/samples/bp6/sample_3.pdf

Then write a reflection paper in which you answer the following questions:

One particular system change concern, is often school psychologist are itinerant, thus not in the building daily, how can you advocate for change when you are not always fully considered part of the building or district? How do you reconcile working for a cooperative but providing services for a district? Just some things to think about or to spur some thoughts for your reflection. Make sure you also incorporate information you read from the following two links above in writing your reflection, and be sure to provide reference them.

Make sure your reflection paper is 2-3 pages double spaced.